

THE RALEIGH NEWS.

VOL. XV.—NO. 8.

RALEIGH N. C. SUNDAY MORNING MARCH 9, 1879

$5.00 PER ANNUM

FRESH ARRIVAL
J. A. BRAGASSA
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Collector and Dealer in Toys, 16 Fayetteville Street.

Has just received a beautiful assortment of CANARY AND MOCKING BIRD CAGES,
MUSIC BOXES,
Also a fine lot of GERMAN HOMONICA'S match st.

At Auction.

I will sell at Public Auction, commencing Sunday evening March 10th, 1879, the large and well selected stock of J. M.
Furnishing Goods, etc., of J. M. noseburner, and a number of sale from day to day until the stock is disposed of.

Action in forenoon from 10 to 12 and in the evening commencing at 7½ o'clock.
The sale will be closed at 12 o'clock
at any time during the day, except
when the auction is in progress.
M. GRAUSMAN, Assignee.
in view 9-5.

READY MADE CLOTHING

Gents' Furnishing Goods, etc., of J. M. noseburner, and a number of sale from
day to day until the stock is disposed of.

Action in forenoon from 10 to 12 and in
the evening commencing at 7½ o'clock.

The sale will be closed at 12 o'clock
at any time during the day, except
when the auction is in progress.

M. GRAUSMAN, Assignee.

in view 9-5.

Butter! Butter!!

Fresh Country Butter

OF FINE QUALITY 15 cts. per lb., $10 for $1.

GOOD OHIO BUTTER,
Solid packed, 25 cts per lb.

CHOICEST NORTHERN BUTTER,
Direct from the Dairy, 30 cts. per lb.

200 Pounds Fresh Eggs 10 Cents Per Dozen.
SHREDDED COD-FISH, IN ONE POUND BOXES; READY FOR THE TABLE IN FIFTEEN MINUTES.

BONELESS CODFISH, DIAMOND BRAND
5 lb. boxes.

DRIED PEACHES, APPLES AND PRUNES, best quality.

Fleur, Meats and Provisions,
CANNED GOODS,
FANCY GROCERIES,

And everything else for the Table, of best quality, VERY LOW.

HARDIN & MOORE,
March 9-10
(Holloman Building.)

$30,000 FOR $2
IN THE Extraordinary Drawing
KENTUCKY STATE LOTTERY, OF

MARCH 26, 1879

Don't overlook the opportunity.

Some one must be the lucky winner, and why not you?

SCHMEE:
1 Prize of $30,000 is $30,000
1 Priz of 15,000 is 15,000
1 Priz of 10,000 is 10,000
2 Priz of 2,000 are 4,000
2 Priz of 1,500 are 3,000
5 Priz of 1,000 are 5,000
50 Priz of 500 are 2,500
100 Priz of 100 are 10,000
100 Priz of 50 are 5,000
500 Priz of 20 are 10,000
1,000 Other Prizes amounting to 15,000

WHOLE TICKETS $2.

All the above prizes will be drawn at this drawing.

The following numbers drew the first three prizes in the ordinary drawing of February 6.

No. 65,484 drew $15,000.

Sold in Philadelphia.

No. 48,998 drew $8,000.

Sold in St. Louis.

No. 54,366 drew $5,000.

Sold in Chicago.

This lottery has been in existence over 60 years, and no drawing has ever been postponed even for a single day.

SIMMONS & DICKINSON, Manager,
Covington, Ky.

Address all orders to our General
Eastern Agents, WILLIAMSON & CO.,
Broadway, New York.

I send in orders without delay, as in the last Extraordinary drawing we were able to get a large number of correspondence private. List of drawings published in the New York Herald, States, Zeitung and London Standard, and other holders are mailing a copy of the official list as soon as received.

A similar drawing will take place in April

March 9-10.

J. J. THOMAS.

OFFERS—

Guano and Supplies

To Farmers.

In stock and arriving

2000 Sacks Allison & Addison's Complete Cotton Manure.

2000 Sacks High Grade Acid Phosphate.

Sulphur Ammonia and Nitrate Soda.

BULK MEAT, CORN MEAL,
OATS, HAY, FLOUR,

NEW CROP CUBA AND NEW ORLEANS

MOLASSES.

RUGS of all grades, COFFEE, PLUG AND SMOKED TOBACCO. All of which will be sold low for

Cash or on Crop Time.

Personal attention given to the sale of Cotton, and to those who wish to hold, I have ample storage room and will make

LIBERAL CASH ADVANCES

with low rate of interest and storage charges

J. J. THOMAS,

COTTON AND COMMISSION MERCHANT,

No. 8 Martin Street,

March 7-10

RALEIGH, N. C.

T. A. KINGSLY, W. E. ASHLEY.

KINGSLY & ASHLEY

ARCHITECTS AND BUILDERS,

Refer to Julius Lewis & Co.,

RALEIGH, N. C.

B. B. Massenburg,

ATTORNEY AT LAW

LOUISBURG, N. C.

Office in the Court House.

Feb 19-18

DAILY NEWS.

SUNDAY, MARCH 9, 1879.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.
For the South At ante States, easterly and southerly. Partly cloudy weather, and during Sunday rise of temperature and falling barometer.

THE CITY.

Index to new advertisements.

For new "ads" see top of this page.

SIMMONS & DICKINSON.—Lottery.

J. A. BRAGASSA.—Cutter.

M. GRANSMAN.—Auction Sale.

HARDIN & MOORE.—Groceries.

JULIUS LEWIS & CO.—Local notice

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Immenses quantities of guano are being hauled up from the depots.

Spencer Hooker and G. W.
Crisp, Jr., were yesterday appointed Commissioners of State of Dade County.

A drummer's license was yesterday issued by the State Treasury to Weisiger & Co., Richmond, Va.

The funeral of the late Mrs. A.
E. Slater will be held from the church of the Good Shepherd at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The same squirrels in the capitol square have become the children's pets, and are so gentle that they will come into one's hand after food.

Mr. N. Dumont, of Charlotte, was yesterday appointed a delegate to the National Trade Convention, at
New York City, on the 12th inst.

MARRIED.—On the 5th inst. in Chavis-ton County, Va., at Englewood, the residence of the bridegroom, by the Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D. assisted by the Rev. R. C. Reid, Ella Friend, daughter of Jno. W. Daniel, Reid, to Rev. Sam'l M. Smith of Washington
N. C.

PIEDMONT PRESS.—The Spring term of the Caswell County Court convened in Newton Monday evening about 3 o'clock.
Judge R. H. Graves was the presiding officer, and the State was the substitute adopted by the House, introduced by Mr.
W. C. Ladd, of Lincolnton, who moved to amend
by requiring the board to leave out
such convicts as exceeded the number
required to be kept in the penitentiary
to such as needed them, without expensive to the State. He wanted fewer convicts to provide for and more revenue.

The bill as amended passed its second
and third readings and under a suspension of the rules was ordered to be sent to the House for concurrence.

On the re-assembly of the Senate the bill was suspended and the rules were suspended, and a bill to correct an error in the act of this session to commute, compound and fatten on the convict of the State debt passed and sent to the House for concurrence.

SEABORD AND TARBORO RAILROAD.

The special order, the bill to provide for the support, &c., of the Penitentiary, was now considered. The bill before the Senate had the entire bill substituted
by the House, introduced by Mr.
W. C. Ladd, of Lincolnton, who moved to amend
by requiring the board to leave out
such convicts as exceeded the number
required to be kept in the penitentiary
to such as needed them, without expensive to the State. He wanted fewer
convicts to provide for and more revenue.

The bill as amended passed its second
and third readings and under a suspension of the rules was ordered to be sent to the House for concurrence.

THE PENITENTIARY.

The special order, the bill to provide
for the support, &c., of the Penitentiary, was now considered. The bill before the Senate had the entire bill substituted
by the House, introduced by Mr.
W. C. Ladd, of Lincolnton, who moved to amend
by requiring the board to leave out
such convicts as exceeded the number
required to be kept in the penitentiary
to such as needed them, without expensive to the State. He wanted fewer
convicts to provide for and more revenue.

The bill as amended passed its second
and third readings and under a suspension of the rules was ordered to be sent to the House for concurrence.

THE GREENBACKERS SAY.

The greenbackers still claim that they have seventeen votes—thirteen, they say, will stand with them in any emergency.

Judge R. H. Graves is at the Central Hotel.
He is not opening goods for sale,
owing to the heavy license tax, but is putting in his time during the boys
for what they had already bought.

CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.—Baltimore
Shirt Rice is at the Central Hotel.
He is not opening goods for sale,
owing to the heavy license tax, but is
putting in his time during the boys
for what they had already bought.

CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.—A hen of Mr.
T. A. Keady's brooded an egg which being hatched, yielded a chick with four wings and four feet.

CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.—The special order
was yesterday appointed a delegate to the National Trade Convention, at
New York City, on the 12th inst.

MARRIED.—On the 5th inst. in Chavis-
ton County, Va., at Englewood, the residence of the bridegroom, by the
Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D. assisted by Mr.
W. C. Ladd, of Lincolnton, who moved to amend
by requiring the board to leave out
such convicts as exceeded the number
required to be kept in the penitentiary
to such as needed them, without expensive to the State. He wanted fewer
convicts to provide for and more revenue.

The bill as amended passed its second
and third readings and under a suspension of the rules was ordered to be sent to the House for concurrence.

THE PENITENTIARY.

The special order, the bill to provide
for the support, &c., of the Penitentiary, was now considered. The bill before the Senate had the entire bill substituted
by the House, introduced by Mr.
W. C. Ladd, of Lincolnton, who moved to amend
by requiring the board to leave out
such convicts as exceeded the number
required to be kept in the penitentiary
to such as needed them, without expensive to the State. He wanted fewer
convicts to provide for and more revenue.

The bill as amended passed its second
and third readings and under a suspension of the rules was ordered to be sent to the House for concurrence.

THE GREENBACKERS SAY.

The greenbackers still claim that they have seventeen votes—thirteen, they
say, will stand with them in any emergency.

Judge R. H. Graves is at the Central Hotel.
He is not opening goods for sale,
owing to the heavy license tax, but is
putting in his time during the boys
for what they had already bought.

CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.—Baltimore
Shirt Rice is at the Central Hotel.
He is not opening goods for sale,
owing to the heavy license tax, but is
putting in his time during the boys
for what they had already bought.

CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.—The special order
was yesterday appointed a delegate to the National Trade Convention, at
New York City, on the 12th inst.

MARRIED.—On the 5th inst. in Chavis-
ton County, Va., at Englewood, the residence of the bridegroom, by the
Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D. assisted by Mr.
W. C. Ladd, of Lincolnton, who moved to amend
by requiring the board to leave out
such convicts as exceeded the number
required to be kept in the penitentiary
to such as needed them, without expensive to the State. He wanted fewer
convicts to provide for and more revenue.

The bill as amended passed its second
and third readings and under a suspension of the rules was ordered to be sent to the House for concurrence.

THE GREENBACKERS SAY.

The greenbackers still claim that they have

DAILY NEWS

SUNDAY, MARCH 9, 1879

News Telegrams.

Impeachment of De Broglie.

London, March 8.—The text of the resolution for the impeachment of De Broglie, Foreign Minister, which impeachment committee of the French Chamber of deputies recommend to the Chamber of deputies is given as follows: The Chamber recommends the impeachment of ministers on the 16th of May, orders sending up of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

M. Addington, president of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs and M. Dugore, the Minister of Justice, also conferred with the committee on the subject of the return of Chambers to Paris. They declared that they would be willing to take the initiative in favor of the return but for the fact that Chambers to effect such change in the constitution they would have to be constituted as a National Assembly. M. Blackstone declares that he himself or General Garfield will be the next speaker.

The monument to Victor Emmanuel, which Italy desires to raise, will cost no less than $10,000,000.

A young daughter of General Tom Ewing, of Ohio, is said to be the prettiest girl in Washington.

Thompson of the eighth Kentucky district, will be the youngest member of the forty-sixth Congress. His name is spelled with a "p." That accounts for it.

The New York Evening Post says Grey's name should be pronounced "Graves." The man with a "vee" about him is always popular.

The correspondents say that there is a good deal of love making in Rome, which reminds us to say that when you are in Rome do as Romeo did.—New York Herald.

The Chinese must now be instructed in citizenship. They must become naturalized, and stuff ballot-boxes and sell their votes.

A fellow-feeling makes us wondrous kind. The Prince of Wales is a patron of the asylum for idiots and has subscribed $500.

There is a bill before the Nevada Legislature providing for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

"He lives above his income," Was the dark reproach he bore, "Till at last it was remembered That he lived above his store."

—N. Y. Mercury.

There will not be a single colored representative in the House of the next Congress, while there will be at least one hundred and twenty-eight white Republicans. Out of that number, couldn't have been made for at least one colored member?

Besides Jones, the new Senator from Louisiana, there will be two other Isrlites in the forty-sixth Congress, both in the lower house. They are Elwin Einstein, elected from New York city, and Leopold Morse, elected from Massachusetts.

Mr. Edison is quoted by a correspondent of the Indianapolis Journal as saying that the electric light "is just as certain as sunrise." "They must give me time for it," he added, "and if they don't, I shall take time. I have never said I would have it done in a week."

Some years ago the Italian parliament repealed all laws inflicting the death penalty for murder, and the result has convinced Italy that it is safe to make the death penalty the only insurance on the steep buildings was $300 dollars in the Illinois Mechanics and 100 in the Hartford company of Hartford. The Police force has been increased, and many private watchmen have been placed on duty.

Attempt to Burn a City.

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—Night after night for the past week, attempts have been made to burn this city. Both citizens and police have thus far failed to discover their origin. One or more fires principally in the stables which points to incendiary work, have occurred each night between 2 and 4 o'clock this morning eight stables were burned while attempts were made to fire other buildings. At first rates saturated with oil. As far as can be learned, the only insurance on the steep buildings was $300 dollars in the Illinois Mechanics and 100 in the Hartford company of Hartford. The Police force has been increased, and many private watchmen have been placed on duty.

Infringing the Patient.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 8.—In the U. S. Circuit Court to-day suits of Goodyear, Dental Vulcan Co. of New York, against certain dentists in this City to restrain them from claiming on the patent rights of complainants, by using "Cavodent" base for dental work, were tried. Judge Bond granted injunctions against the defendant's with the order to account for profits.

Granting Him Pardon.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Ex-Senator Patterson to-day received a letter from the Attorney General of South Carolina, and, oblivious to any indignities pending against him in that State, Mr. Patterson will leave here in a few days to accept an important trust under the Southern Pacific Railroad company in Arizona.

A Great Flood.

CINCINNATI, March 8.—A Fremont, Ohio, despatch says: The recent rains have swollen Sandusky river and the ice going below the city, remaining unbroken, the water is flowing into the town. The residents on Front street are using skiffs to get to their houses.

Not Guilty.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 8.—Tried morning the Jury in the case of Geo. Apple indicted for the murder of John Hackett in November last returned a verdict of not guilty.

The Legislature.

Concord Register. A total of 32 cents as against 38 cents on the $10 last year.

This is some reduction. About one-fourth of the 32 cents tax goes to the mud cut railroad, and another lump of it goes to the I. S. & A. A-yum.

Good for Them.

A lady yesterday told her husband to be sure to call at one of the drug stores down town and get some more of that Cherokee Indian Cough Cure, for it had done the children more good than anything they had ever used.

For Rent.

A dwelling house in the city of Raleigh. Seven rooms, in good repair, with necessary out houses. For particulars apply to W. H. Pace, Attorney at Law.

Fresh Lime and Cement.

Always in stock. Prices and quantity guaranteed. Sash, doors and blinds, enough always in stock to build 200 houses. Write for price list. Julius Lewis & Co., hardware merchants, Raleigh, N. C.

The news from the seat of war is constantly contradictory, but not so from W. H. Pace's Cough Syrup; every report concerning it proves it to be the best Cough Syrup known. Only 25 cents.

Particular Notice.

Business men and others in need of Book and Job Printing of any kind should remember that the News Job OFFICE is the place to have it done neatly, cheaply and at the shortest notice.

At Watson's.

N. C. Hams, sugar cured shoulders, bulk meat, N. C. pork, lard, pig's feet and tripe.

Fresh Supply.

Of that white jug lag beer at Watson's, the best in the country.

In General.

Mark Twain will return from abroad in a few weeks.

An American named Livingston drives a fourteen-horse team in Florida.

There are but ten daily papers in Florida.

The largest metal statue in the world is situated near the city of Arona, Italy.

General Sherman returned to Washington from his Southern trip Tuesday.

Mr. Blackstone declares that he himself or General Garfield will be the next speaker.

The monument to Victor Emmanuel, which Italy desires to raise, will cost no less than $10,000,000.

A young daughter of General Tom Ewing, of Ohio, is said to be the prettiest girl in Washington.

Thompson of the eighth Kentucky district, will be the youngest member of the forty-sixth Congress. His name is spelled with a "p." That accounts for it.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.

Rev. John E. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbus, S. C., writes: "Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes," and using the "Seven Springs Mass" with considerable relief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case; want to continue its use until a cure is effected; send with the enclosed a copy of the report and its appendices to the Senate, and appoints a committee of five of its members to proceed with the charges and act as the public prosecutor.</